5. Invitation to the Public to Address the Board

6. Reports and Discussion Topics

6.1. Discussion Topic: Upcoming Elections

Comments and Notes: Genevieve suggested certain positions should have a longer-term, with the third year being in a supportive and training role. If re-elected, would the term start over? Delfino suggested that at least half of the members should step down, with the possibility to run again, so that we can have alternating elections. Genevieve suggested that, regarding the certificated seats, we alternate so that one year two teachers are elected, and the next year the third teacher runs. She also was wondering if someone was re-elected, would their term start over? Jenn Grob said she would be willing to re-run again this year. Hokanson volunteers to run again. Grob agrees. Murillo was questioned in the third year or three months as a transitional period. How many officer positions are there? Chair, vice-chair, and secretary. Jennifer Hamilton asked about the timing for a 2-year term. Hokanson suggested that Murillo, Hokanson, and Sanchez would run again next year and if we don't win, we help train for the next position. Murillo does not think we should re-run this year since we are so new. Hokanson feels the chair position is most crucial to keep in place at least one more year to solidify the SSC. Murillo fully believes and supports the mission statement and to create a better future. We are still getting used to our positions and figuring out what the future holds. Findlay recommended we list out questions for next time.

6.2. Discussion Topic: Hybrid Meetings

Comments and Notes:

Murillo asked if we are able to have hybrid or in-person meetings. Findlay is confirming the date of whether or not we need to meet in person or could have possible hybrid meetings? Asking about hybrid meetings.

Grob agrees that hybrid will be great for participation. Hokanson agrees as well and suggests asking Dr. Rentie whether or not we need to have an in-person or if we can continue to have hybrid meetings.

9. Board Comments

- 9.1. Name: Jennifer Grob comment. Has not been able to access minutes. She abstained earlier because she wasn't able to view them. Asking for a way to gain access. Staylor said she can post the link in PDF format so it will be easily accessible. Grob said that would be great. Murillo also has tech issues.

9.2. Name: Murillo appreciates staff at REACH. Never experienced the culture last year and this year is experiencing it and wants others to be able to experience it in person at meetings. There were some concerns, but any time there were any issues, everyone was patient, informative, and warm. COVID times are hard to get quick responses and REACH is great at responding quickly. KUDOS to the staff at REACH and he believes in what we are building.
